About the Barney & Barney's 2010 Grant Recipients - Founded by the Principals and Associates of Barney & Barney, the Foundation accepts grant nominations once a year from its Associates. The proposals are then reviewed and narrowed down by a committee, after which potential recipients are invited to apply formally. Grant amounts vary year after year, depending on funds raised and the need of the potential recipient.

"From preserving an ecosystem to helping families dealing with hardship, the Barney & Barney Foundation's 2010 Grant Recipients are all in need of our help," commented Paul Hering, Managing Principal and CEO of Barney & Barney.
